

ATHÉNA
(A)

TENŌCHTILAN (B)

The game board for Tenochtitlan (B) features a detailed cityscape background. The board is bordered by a decorative pattern. Key elements include:

- Top Left: A circular icon containing a grey stone block.
- Right Side: A vertical stack of icons: two grey stone blocks, a red circular icon with crossed swords, a green laurel wreath with the number 4, a yellow pyramid, another red circular icon with crossed swords, a green laurel wreath with the number 2, another yellow pyramid, another red circular icon with crossed swords, a green laurel wreath with the number 1, and a final yellow pyramid.
- Left Side: A vertical stack of icons: a green circular icon with a hammer, a golden circular icon with a sword, a yellow pyramid, a green circular icon with a hammer, a vertical stack of icons (4, a red 'X', a grey stone block, a green circular icon with a hammer, a purple icon), and a red square icon with a green circular icon containing the number 1.
- Bottom Center: A large grey stone block and a yellow pyramid.
- Bottom Right: A red square icon with a green circular icon containing the number 1.

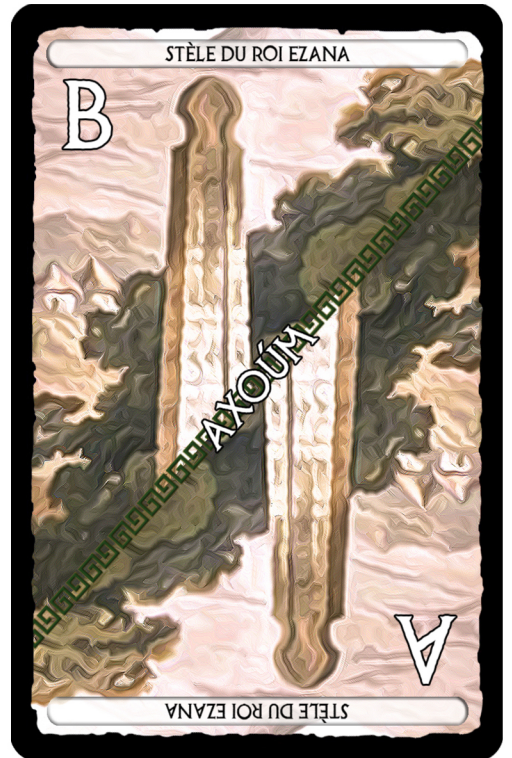

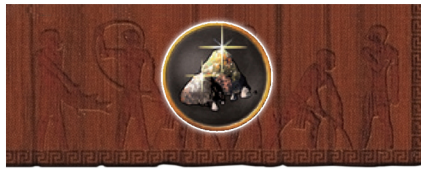

TÉLANISSÓS (B)

The board game board features a central column of four green laurel wreaths labeled 1, 2, 3, and 4. To the left and right of the board are various icons representing resources and actions, including pyramids, blocks, and tools. The background is a stylized illustration of an ancient Greek temple interior with a large column and arches.

ΑΧΟΥΜ አክሱም · (A)

ΑΧΟΥΜ
አክሱም · (B)

IKARUGA-CHŌ
斑九鳥町・(B)

5

3

3

3

3

3

3

1

